About

Matthew is a hard-working individual who graduated from USU with a bachelors in business administration. He met his wife while attending Utah state and has been married for 16 years. Together they have 2 girls. He works long hours at work, so whenever he has an opportunity he travels with his family and kids, and spoils them on vacation.

Hobbies

Enjoys off-roading in his jeep in the Utah desert, traveling to new places with family, hiking, and spending time in the ocean or on the beach. Loves family-friendly activities, hates driving in unknown places - prefers to rideshare or walk on vacations

Vacation

Matthew is always looking for his next ideal vacation spot online. He navigates various tourism websites throughout the week. He loves all inclusive packages, where he can add on family-friendly adventures like ziplining, snorkeling, guided tours and more. His family of 4 typically flies to their destinations, and will stay at a hotel with breakfast included. They take 4 vacations a year, and stays for 5 days at a time.
